

Religious Education: Curriculum Overview

Year 9 (Statutory)

Term	Topic studied	What will I learn?	How will I be assessed?
Year 9 Autumn	Religion, War & Planet Earth	The first topic students will consider is one of which they will almost certainly be aware of through exposure in massed media and possible even electronic entertainment: War <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why do people fight wars? • Is it ever morally right to go to war? • What do different religions have to say on the subject. • What ethical controversies surround the possession and manufacture of weapons of mass destruction. The second builds upon some of the learning in year 8, to examine specific environmental topics in further detail: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why is the role of Animals in the world? Is it acceptable to keep them for work or as pets? • How can we deal with the growing problems of global warming and deforestation in a way which is fair to all? • Is nuclear energy the future? Or is it a dangerous experiment? 	Two formative Essays each half term.
Year 9 Spring	The Holocaust Religion and Human Life	The First half term coincides with the events of holocaust memorial Day and provides a chance for students to consider the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The events that, together, make up the following. • The nature and origins of antisemitism. • The testimony and message of victims and survivors. • How such terrible events and similar genocides should be remembered and prevented in future. The Second part of this term changes the focus to the moral frontier between contemporary science and traditional religious values. In particular we shall examine topics such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medical Ethics • Stem Cell research • Human and Animal Testing • Transfusions and Transplants • Artificial Insemination and IVF • Abortion • Cloning • Euthanasia 	A Formal Letter on the subject of the holocaust and its survivors. Two Formative Essays in the latter half term.
Year 9 Summer	Religion, Wealth and Poverty & Religion and Drugs	The first part of the term will be of direct benefit to those studying at GCSE as it is a key component in the reformed specification for AQA. Topics covered include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The idea of using wealth responsibly and 'right livelihood'. • Why people may be poor. • Religious attitudes to wealth. • How religious people may feel they have a duty to help the less fortunate and how they go about doing this. The second half will explore the varying attitudes to the use of drugs and stimulants – Not a topic which is as simple as it first seems – but one very relevant to a youth culture which is never far away from advertising or media influence on the subject. This will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What a drug is and the different types. • The Classification system and the effects of illegal drugs, as well as the position of UK law. • The attitude of different religions to the debate around cannabis usage. • The attitude of various religions to the use of social drugs like caffeine, tobacco and alcohol. 	Two formative essays each half term.
